

COBS Bread Opening in Milton First day of sales will be donated to Milton District Hospital Foundation

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 4, 2018 (Milton, ON) – Canada’s largest bakery franchise, COBS Bread will be opening Wednesday, November 14th for Community Day at Willmott Marketplace in Milton, ON. All sales from the day will be donated to the Milton District Hospital Foundation.

This is the first COBS Bread bakery in Milton, but will be Ontario’s 23rd COBS Bread bakery. The bakery will be owned and operated by local Adil Hanif. “Every COBS Bread bakery opens with Community Day, and I really believe it’s a fantastic way to say, ‘thanks,’ right off the bat to our new neighbours and community,” says Hanif.

The bakery will also host a Grand Opening ceremony on Friday, November 16th, which will be attended by Mayor Gordon Krantz in addition to other dignitaries from the community.

Owners of all COBS Bread bakeries are also actively involved in their local communities which is a cornerstone of the COBS Bread brand. All products are baked fresh daily on site and unsold product is donated to local charities at the end of the day. It is well-known for its range of traditional and artisan breads, as well as sweet and savoury treats such as scones, croissants and danishes.

COBS Bread Willmott Marketplace is located at 608 Santa Maria Blvd and will be open from 6am-8pm every day. COBS Bread For more information, visit the local bakery page at www.cobsbread.com/local-bakery/willmott-marketplace.
